

I am increasingly concerned about more media consolidation and thus more concentration of power. With that concentration follows less competition of economies and ideas. While it may be unrealistic to roll back to earlier consolidation rules, at least retain the rules we have. Resist efforts to allow greater consolidation and retain the current ownership rules.

Thank you.

Randy Schwickert